

Cadaqués

Rocks Cape & Salvador Dali House

Location

Cadaqués is a small town in province of Girona which belong to Catalunya, located at Iberian Peninsula. Town is placed in the rocky bay and separated by wild mountains . There lives about 3000 people.

Iglesia de Sta. María de Cadaqués

On a small hill rises the late gothic church. Streets made of stones polished by the sea leads to the church.

Iglesia de Sta. María de Cadaqués

23 meter high altar baroque altar and organs made by Josep Bosca in the years 1689-1691.

Rocks Cape

Meaning: Cadaques - Cap d'Aques – Rocks Cape

In fact, the rocks are an inseparable part of the landscape and also a large Cap de Creus Nature Park. To get to the town you have to pass a steep Strempost. Taking a steep road to the harbor town, we have a magnificent view of the bay and plenty of white cabins in Portlligat fishing district.

Casa-Museu Salvador Dalí

In 1930 r. Dali bought a small fishing hut. The painter lived with his wife Gala. Over the years, it has been expanded, transformed, merged creating labyrinths. The building is surrounded by olive groves (we can see it at some of his artworks). It is a house with garden and swimming pool, located right by the sea. All rooms have been specially decorated. Mirror in bedroom is placed at an angle to lying in bed in so the artist could enjoy the sunrise.

Outside

The museum is decorated with the figure of two cracked heads, eggs on the towers and a composition made of Firelli tires.

Inside

Gala collected photos of Salvador with important people (ex. Pope John XXIII or General Franco) and glued them on the furniture. There are paintings of the master, including those unfinished, the realization of his innovative ideas, many beautiful furniture and trinkets, stuffed birds and wildlife.

Memory of Salvador Dali

Natural size monument made of bronze; posters, photos at walls, in restaurants etc.

(Beach near Riba Nemesi Llorens)

patzenaplatz.pl

Thanks for watching 😊

Prepared by: Gabriela Morawska